12. Prime agricultural areas, defined as Class I, II and III soils in the Warren County Soil Survey.
13. Physiographic characteristics and hydrologic soil groups. Hydrologic soil groups are classified as A, B, C or D and defined as follows:
A. Soils that have high infiltration rates when thoroughly wetted. They are deep, well-drained and excessively drained sand or gravel. Rate of water transmission is high, and runoff potential is low.
B. Soils with moderate infiltration rates when thoroughly wetted. They are deep and moderately deep, well-drained and moderately well-drained, moderately coarse-textured soils. The rate of water transmission is moderate.
C. Soils with slow infiltration rates when thoroughly wetted. They have a layer impeding downward movement of water or moderately fine and fine textured soils with dense subsoils. Rate of water transmission is slow.
D. Soils that have very slow infiltration rates when thoroughly wetted. They are clays that have a high shrink-swell potential, soils that have a permanent high water table, soils that have a claypan or clay layer near the surface or soils that are shallow over nearly impervious material. Rate of water transmission in these soils is very slow.
14. Existing road network: identify all public and private streets, rights-of-way and farm roads on and within five hundred (500) feet of the site. All on-tract easements must be shown.
